

SLN Quantum Info Panel

User Manual — v1.0

1. Overview

SLN Quantum Info Panel is a professional NinjaTrader 8 indicator that displays comprehensive trading information directly on your chart. It provides real-time monitoring of position status, P&L, trade statistics, session data, and risk parameters — all in a clean, chart-friendly dark UI.

The panel is designed for traders who want instant visibility into their account state, strategy performance, and market session without switching windows or tabs.

7. FAQ

Q: Does the Info Panel place trades?

A: No. It is a monitoring-only indicator. It displays information but does not execute any orders.

Q: Can I use it on multiple charts?

A: Yes. You can add the indicator to any chart. The panel will show data for that chart's instrument and account.

Q: Is this a subscription?

A: No. This is a one-time lifetime purchase for €25.

Q: What if the panel does not appear?

A: Make sure the import completed without errors, then restart NinjaTrader 8. Check the Indicators list for SLNQuantumInfoPanel.

Q: How do I get support?

A: Contact support@slnquantum.com with your NinjaTrader account email and a description of the issue.
